

IF YOU BECOME DISABLED OR DIE,
WOULD YOUR FAMILY
LOSE THE HOUSE?

TIME FOR A REALITY CHECK:

How would your mortgage be paid if you become disabled? Or if you die? That's why Shenandoah Life Insurance Company offers Mortgage Protector® – a life insurance policy with a disability income rider that:

1. Pays a lump sum if you die, giving your family time to make difficult choices ahead.
2. Provides money if you're disabled to help pay bills, such as your house payment.

It provides cash when your family needs it most. And it's easy to apply for. So call me today for more information about protecting your family with Mortgage Protector®.

AGENT'S NAME
STREET ADDRESS
CITY, STATE ZIP
PHONE

Mortgage Protector®, Form L-1039-1/07; Other Insured Term Rider, Form R-2048-1/07, Return of Premium Rider, Form R-2029-8/01; Disability Income Rider, Form R-2025-4/00 and Form R-2026-4/00. In some states, the state suffix is part of the state form number. The benefit paid in the event of suicide during the first two policy years (one year in CO) may be limited to the premiums paid. D.I. Riders have exclusions and limitations. For costs and complete details of coverage, please contact me at the above location.